PASTOR'S CORNER

Good morning! We welcome you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. If you're visiting for the first time we hope you feel right at home! Today we'll learn about what Jesus and the rest of Scriptures say about heaven. It's the best news! Jesus died and rose again so our sins could be forgiven: and if we choose to accept His free gift of salvation we'll be members of His family forever. May the message today stir in our hearts a deep longing for heaven.

5. When thinking about Heaven, we can do more than only _____.

Follow-up Questions from Sunday's Message:

Getting to Know You: What is it about Heaven that you're most looking forward to?

Quick Review: Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

Digging Deeper:

1. Read John 14:1-4. The night before Jesus went to the cross, He wanted to tell His disciples that He was going to prepare a place for them in Heaven. When you think about Heaven what do you think of? Revelation 21:4 says what won't be in Heaven but what do you think will be?
2. Do you think that knowing more about what Scripture reveals about Heaven helps in our daily walk? Why or why not?
3. There are competing stories of what reality is made up of. How would you explain why the Christian story of reality is the true story?
4. What does Psalm 16:11, Ephesians 2:7, Revelation 22:3-5, 2 Timothy 2:12, Luke 19:17, and Isaiah 35:10 say heaven will be like?
   a. Somehow, infused into culture, is the concept that Heaven will be boring. (Satan may be behind this.) These verses (and there are many more like them) refer to the everlasting Heaven. Does this sound boring? Does the concept of 'reigning with Christ' feel awkward to you? Why or why not?
5. Scripture presents the "present, temporary Heaven" as a place of rest from Earth's negatives and the "future, permanent Heaven" as active and the enjoyment of Earth's positives. Have you ever thought of Heaven this way? What do you think this should mean to us?
6. Scripture gives us many wonderful insights into the place that Jesus is preparing for us (John 14), but what does 1 Cor 2:9 ultimately say about where we are going?

Prayer: Ask the Lord to fill you with a confidence, peace, joy and hope; that the promise of Heaven is supposed to give you in Jesus.

Taking it home: Memorize 1 Corinthians 2:9, 1 Peter 1:3
