PASTOR'S CORNER

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." - 1 John 1:9

Happy 250th Birthday, America! And a good morning to our Woodbridge Family and special guests! We welcome you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

In today's study of the Gospel of John, we come to the story of the adulterous woman, a famous biblical account of Jesus' grace. As He has forgiven the woman who was caught in sin, He offers the same forgiveness to us too. May we also experience the same freedom from sin and shame that Christ so generously offers to all those who repent and put their trust in Him alone.

Key verses: John 8:1-11

Message: Between Law and Grace

Series: A Journey Through the Gospel of John

Title of Message:

Series: A Journey Through the Gospel of John

Key Verses: John 8:1-11

Speaker: Pastor Vince Arnaldo

Between Law and Grace

Verses used: John 8:1-11, Leviticus 20:10, Deuteronomy 22:22, Matthew 5:17, John 3:16-17

Background

1. Textual Background: The passage is not found in the earlier manuscripts.
2. A crime was committed. That was not the proper venue for a judicial hearing. Jesus was not a civil magistrate. He had no jurisdiction in legal matters. Clearly this was mob action, a public lynching with an agenda.
3. The agenda was a trap for Jesus. If Jesus said stone her, he would be violating Roman Law which prohibits capital punishment without the Roman governor's approval. If he said no to stoning, he would be going against the Torah. Deuteronomy 22:22, Leviticus 20:10.
4. No respectable Rabbi would side with an adulterer, let alone defend her. And yet Jesus did. Why?

Who was on trial?

In the eyes of the crowd the _____ was on trial. In the eyes of God, the _____ were on trial.

Jesus sees sinners with _____, seeking to save them, and not _____.

Application

Jesus died so those _____ can be set free.

Some Questions for Your Group This Week:

1. What was something you learned or what stood out to you from the sermon on Sunday?
2. The woman caught in adultery was clearly guilty of the crime. What was wrong with the way the religious leaders handled her case? John 8:1-5
3. Legalism is the intent to harm others in the guise of righteousness. In what ways were the actions of the religious leaders evil and how did they cloak it in righteousness? Read John 8:6. In what ways can people today use the bible to harm others?
4. Why do you think the crowd didn't stone the woman? Read John 8:9
5. Grace is defined as undeserved favor. How was grace demonstrated in this passage? What are the possible ways the woman could have responded to Jesus? Read John 8:10-11
6. The ultimate act of grace is forgiveness. How did Jesus forgive the woman? John 8:11
7. How do we show love and grace to people who are difficult to love? (Hint: begin with your own heart's attitude!)
