

THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus and "Good morning"! Today, we will be talking about self worth and its true source.

If this is your first visit to our church, you've recently started attending, or have any questions about Jesus or our church, please visit the Welcome Center immediately after the service. Friendly people will be there to greet you and answer your questions. We would love to help you meet, know, and follow Jesus and personally welcome you to our WCC family!

Follow-up Questions from Sunday:

Quick Review:

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

Digging Deeper:

Read the following verses in Philippians 3:4-14 and discuss following questions:

1. Read verses 4-7. Paul was not just an ordinary Jew, he was a super achiever? What do you think attracted Paul to be super zealous in promoting the Jewish faith? Before he was a Christ follower, what was the greatest validator of his worth as a person?
2. Read verses 8-11. What did Apostle Paul find in Jesus that motivated him to abandon his whole culture, namely all that he had and all that he knew, in order to be a follower of Christ? What did he gain when he followed Christ? Make a list.
3. Read verses 12-14 Apostle Paul's desire is to work hard and someday reach the goal, at the end of his life on earth, and receive his prize from the Lord. How can future rewards in heaven motivate you to live your life for Christ here in earth?

Action Points for Reflection:

4. What are the things that hinder you from following Jesus on earth? What temptations do you constantly struggle with? What forces have power over your life? What or who is the main validator of your worth as a person?
5. Do you find it hard to forgive certain people? What are things you know you should do but you don't? Or things you shouldn't do but you do? Make a list. Then ask yourself how the value of your future rewards in heaven compare with your sacrifices for Jesus here on earth. Then decide to do what has greater value to you.

Prayer: Lord, help me to count the cost of following you and let you alone be the validator of my worth as a person!

MISSIONS HIGHLIGHT

DAVE & JOANNE BECKWITH (Standing Stone Min., Irvine, California)

Dear Praying Friends,

During my college days, I joked that instead of taking a turn for the worse I took a turn for the nurse. How thankful I am for Nurse Joanne, and we celebrate 56 years of marriage on June 8.

Little did we realize how valuable her medical and psychiatric background would be in our ministry. Right now, the Nurse is on full-time duty in our ministry.

Would you join us in praying for these health and spiritual challenges among those we shepherd?

1. Pray for full and complete recovery for Phalla Goy, wife of Sonly, who had breast cancer surgery yesterday. We are rejoicing that the lymph nodes were clear. It is likely she will need radiation treatment. Joanne is managing her recovery in our home. Sonly and Phalla, missionaries to Cambodia, came to live with us last Thanksgiving, and they hope to return by the end of the year.
2. Pray for 54-year-old John, pastor and missionary serving in Yucatan, Mexico. He is having brain surgery this morning to remove a large tumor, probably cancerous. He and his wife have faced fierce opposition—bomb threats, a beating, a stolen vehicle, run-ins with the local witch doctor, and now this. He and his wife are boldly proclaiming the gospel and leading people out of the spiritual darkness in Mexico.
3. Pray for John, a pastor in Northern California. Earlier this month, he collapsed. He will require a heart replacement. He and wife lead a church that is the only gospel witness in a remote community known for alcohol, drugs, and immorality.
4. Pray for the wife of the former Muslim I led to Christ. They are both from Iran and raised as Muslims. He is sharing Jesus with her, and she is hesitant but open.
5. Pray for a dynamic missionary couple we care for serving in South Africa. She had hip replacement surgery and is experiencing a slow recovery. They are developing a House of Refuge Ministry Center to provide safe housing for marginalized women and children. He is boldly proclaiming the gospel on an island that can't be named since it is so dangerous.

"Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion" is what Paul said. "Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere. And pray for me, too" (Eph. 6:18-19 NLT).

Thanks for praying.
